“ My friend "chuck",,i will always remember...he was a very respectable friend,,he was always in a good mood and smiling!! He was very close to my family,,my mom and sisters as well as i,,he was always so helpful,,even on the day of this tragededy,,he was at my house heling me get my laen mower started so i could cut my grass,,matter fact,he hung out with me all morning,,we drank french vanilla coffee,a whole pot,,lol,, and just talked,,about everything,,he even got his brand new tshirt he just bought dirty and said,while he laughed,,,"rhoda u got me all dirty" we laughed,,i said"well look at me,,lol,,we had some real good laughs that day,,shared a pot of coffee and he shared his cigarettes with me as i did later that day b4 he left!! Im so glad that in all this mess,,i got to see him,talk to him,laugh with him,,share with each other, and most of all hug him goodbye and told him come back later for my own memory balloon release with my kids father that passed 5yrs ago to the day god took chuck home,, i miss chuck,,he is a good guy!! He will b missed,,my heart is with the family and friends that chuck really did have!!
