“ No words can ever explain the loss of a child, brother, I knew you for years, and you always were so respectful to our family. I wished things were different for you and my brother Michael Rios, you were family to him. I'm praying so hard for your mother and family to have the strength to get through this day and the rest of their lives. It is so hard but God will get them through some way, he works in mysterious ways. I'm so very sorry this happened to such a young man...may you rest in peace my friend.

“misty I remember when he was born. I went to see him .you handed him to me and said look finally arrived a smile on your face. Like you so small at birth,I had to find him in all the blankets .May you and the rest of your family found peace and comfort helping each other thru the time of pain.May god bless this whole family as one. Brad your be missed rest in peace.love cousin Terry Kovach and the rest of my family sends their prayers to the family.

“Bradly was such a cute baby boy who loved watching Barney and friends the goofy movie and space jam. He dropped my keys down a hole in the porch steps and hide my shoes so I couldn't leave. He was just a ray of sunshine. Then he became a man and then a father. He will be missed many. I love you bub and my heart has a huge hole in it.

“My prayers go out to his family. I'll always cherish our memories and how I could go to you for anything and everything. We used to be so close in high school. It's sad a good person had to go so early on in life leaving family and a son. But atleast you touched so many in the 22 short years you was down here. You will always hold a special place in my heart.
