“ God called you home and Heaven's gates opened wide, welcoming you in. You left your troubles behind and now may you soar on eagle's wings. God has blessed us both with a common bond on this Earth, having a gentle, giving and loving man in our lives, your Grandfather and my Step-Father, William Neubecker. Watch over Him, your Mother and Daughter from above, as they carry on without you here.

“ Dear Bill, I can't imagine what it's like as a Grandfather to lose a Grandson. What I do know is how you watched out for him. When he was available you were always willing for him to be on your crew. When he lived in the apartments, you bent over backwards for him. I am certain he was grateful. Chrissy, I am truly sorry for your loss. Hold tight to the memories of your son. Godspeed Bryan, Godspeed! Cheryl
