“ I met Chuck and his fiance at the hospital..I was his nurse..from the 3 days I had him as a pt I found that he was a wonderful loving guy..one day he held my hand and asked me if he was making the right choice by choosing hospice. And was wondering if God would think it was wrong. .I remember reassuring him by telling him that I am sure he had spoke to God about his decision and that everything would be ok. He told me he was going to be ok.what a lucky nurse i was to meet Chuck.I happened to see that he passed on the funeral homes website while looking up my husbands aunts obituary for her funeral tomorrow ..God bless his fiance and family you are all in my prayers.. “ I first met Dave when I was about 12 years old,he was still dating Sue, (my sister) and I guess he figured time to get in good with the little brother. We went for a drive talking, getting to know each other, and we went to Elizabeth Park,and he pulled over and asked me if I wanted to drive. I drove all the way around the park. Coolest thing in the world to a kid. From that point on he was ok with me!

“ Back around '84 or '85 I had a Halloween party and Chucky showed up in costume with a mask of a very old man. He wouldn't speak to me or tell me who he was and it took me about an hour to figure out who it was. He got a big kick out of doing that to me. I think of that now and it makes me smile.
