“Wow, I never knew this existed... I read through each comment and I can't begin to explain how happy each one made me. It brings me great gratitude to see how my father impacted other's lives. He was a great man, mentor, friend, but most of all, a superb father. I'll never forget the way he greeted me when I met up with him for a bite to eat or just to share some drinks and chat - He always made you feel special. Thank you to everyone who shared a memory or sent flowers, those gestures do not go unnoticed. I just wish life had a reset button. RIP pops, I love and miss you so incredibly much!!!

“I'll remember all the laughter & Happiness Gary brought into our lives. He touched our hearts in a way that no one else could. He was a true friend, a gentleman. He was compassionate, considerate & courteous. He was easygoing, funny, generous, a good-honest man, with a kind loving & loyal heart. Gary was family to us, we loved him, and he will be missed dearly. "Everyone leaves footprints in your memory, but the ones that leave footprints in your heart are the ones you will truly remember." “ Post 409, American Legion State Champions, teammates of Huck. Our best left hander that never folded under pressure. And a great friend to EVERYONE on the team. We'll always cherish the memories and the many, many great times we had. RIP Brother and great friend.

“ Gary was one of those cute, sweet boys in high school that I had a crush on. He was never "not" nice. Rarely did I see without a smile on his face. He was definitely a humble guy when it came to things he could do. I have wondered about him over the years and I'm sorry that we were never able to keep in touch. To his family, I am so sorry for your loss. I imagine the pain will be unbearable at times but just remember - him and those beautiful memories that you have. Hold on to those. RIP Gary

“ *My heart go's out to Gary's Children, Friends and Family. I have not seen Gary since Grade School. Clarence Randall Grade School. Gary always had a baseball glove in his hand at all times. Always sweet and kind.
RIP Gary, Fly High with those wings.*

“ I can remember playing powder puff in high school. I played both center and nose guard. Gary was our "upper classman" helper. All other helpers, male football players, stood about 6-8' behind the center/ nose guard. Not Gary, he get right up to the back of me. Every one was in awe, which helped us to win. After every one was dumb founded, omgosh he was so close and that " he " Mr Hottie" is right there. Gary and I found it funny for a while...the joke is. We were cousins! played football at home and hung out.!! We have great memories Gary, its been years since we have talked. RIP my cousin, my you be in the arms of Jesus.

“ I will miss Gary's kind heart. His jokes,his HUG when he greets you.He would say how are you doing you're looking good he always had a complement.I remember he was always smiling and joking and having fun like he didn't have a care in the world.That is what's so special about Gary he chose to have fun in life and not let life bring him down.That is what i will remember and learn from.I have a personal story.In 1983 Truman Varsity baseball Gary was a senior I was a sophomore.Roger Bechtol asked me if I could catch I said yes he said put the equipment on and get behind the plate not like i was taking Phil Biggs job.He sends Gary out to the mound he throws a fastball that pushed me back on my ASS and everyone laughed.I guess it was my initiation but Gary would tell you that he wasn't a good pitcher he was very humble.
I will miss him until I see him again.

“ Gary was one of my favorite people in the world. He always had a hug, smile and kind word. I will truly miss him and his infectious laugh and always cherish the memories. He has been considered part of our family for a long time and I am still trying to wrap my head around the fact that I will not see Gary at our next family function. Truly one of a kind. Rest in Peace my friend and remember The Werewolves of London.

“ I had hoped others would be first....but I'll gladly share. Gary was such a great guy. Having to say "was" is not something any of us wanted to do. I guess my most recent memory of him was about 10 years ago he took me and my son (then 4) to a concert at Pine Knob. My rambunctious son proceeded to climb all over him like he was a jungle gym. Poor Gary just sat there and let him... being as patient as a saint. No matter how hard I tried to make him stop - my son just wanted to be close to him. The two of them ended up chilling side by side through the concert till my son fell asleep. He took us both home and we hugged goodbye. It was a great night and a great memory and I will miss my friend (even though we never really stayed in contact). Gone too soon...RIP
