“ My cousin, Jimmy, was truly an angel on earth! So kind and so sweet! Never, ever said a bad word against anyone, always smiling, and loving life. The love he showed everyone was truly remarkable, and the love he had for his family was priceless. Rest in peace, my friend! Love you!

“ (I want to share a poem that is special to me.)

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be so he put his arms around you
And Whispered, "Come with Me",
We watched you suffer
And we saw you fade away
Although we Loved you dearly
we could not make you stay;
A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands at rest
God broke our hearts to prove
He only takes the best;
It's Lonesome here without you
We miss you more every day
Life doesn't seem the same
Since you've went away;
When days are sad and lonely
And everything goes wrong
We seem to hear you whisper
"Cheer Up Carry On."
Each time we see your pictures:
You seem to smile and say
"Don't cry, I'm in God's Keeping We'll meet Again some day."

Deepest Sympathy from the Ellsworth Family; Scott, Janet, Steve and Jamie. This poem was read when we lost my dad and it reminds me so much of your dad Cherie. Love you all. He was so sweet and kind to all of us. All good memories.

“ Dad, I miss you so much. I don't have just one special memory because all of my memories are special. The days are so difficult. I wish you were here.

*I love and miss you,
Cherie*
