“ I didn't get to meet Joseph in person as I'm in the UK. I got to know him on Facebook; we had the occasional chat and commented on each other's posts. I could easily tell that Joseph was a sweet, gentle, kind, dear soul and it's obvious that he will be much-missed.

My deepest sympathies to Joseph's family at this sad time. I send you strength, courage, prayers and peace. You now have a powerful guardian angel watching over you all.

May Joseph's transition be a peaceful one. Rest in peace dear soul and Blessed Be. x

“ I remember Joe playing a white Fender maybe it was when we were 14 and I used to walk over to his house to watch him play it and it was a long walk or bike ride from Patton Park to Delray . Remember the good times with him.
