“ So many thoughts, so many words could not define the lost of my dear sweet Aunt Joyce. I have nothing but a few sweet memories because bl didn't grow up privileged being in her company. However, when I did come to town for visits, she was always one I made sure that I had to see. She always was welcoming, and had good conversation and a smile and sometimes a laugh, from her amazing sense of humor. Truly a lovely, beautiful Aunt to me, and much more to everyone who knew her. A solid foundation, a rock for the the whole family!

“ Grandma was my great grandmother, every moment with her was a special moment and memory created.! She had a smile that would melt your heart forever.!!! Her hugs were the greatest and the I love you will forever remain.! Losing her is very hard to accept but knowing she is with her Angel is what make it a little easier to deal with. I will miss eating strawberry cheesecake with you or the many back rubs you enjoyed so dearly.! Just having you in my life was a blessing you showed me very many things and I will always hold on to them.! Forever my angel, we love you Great Grandma Joyce.. Until we see each other again please never stop holding my hand. Love always your great grand daughter Sarah.!

“ It's been many years since I've seen aunt Joyce and had lost touch with the family up until recently. Growing up I would sometime get to spend time at grandpa and grandma Brasseur's when Carol and Doug were there. I know your hearts are all breaking now, just know she loved you all dearly and wouldn't want you to grieve. She's at peace, thoughts and prayers to you all.
