“ *Dear Kady,
My heart aches that you were taken so young.
I hope you are resting in peace with your great grandfather, great grandmother, stepfather, and other family members.
You are no longer lost or in pain.
I love you.

“ *What I would not give to have something to say to ease your hurts.
But I know that nothing touches this kind of pain. I thought I would share with you something that someone shared with me when my mother passed away. It was so beautiful
I am standing upon the seashore. A ship, at my side, spreads her white sails to the moving breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength.
I stand and watch her until, at length, she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other.*

Then, someone at my side says, "There, she is gone."

Gone where?

*Gone from my sight. That is all. She is just as large in mast, hull and spar as she was when she left my side.
And, she is just as able to bear her load of living freight to her destined port.*

Her diminished size is in me -- not in her.

And, just at the moment when someone says, "There, she is gone," there are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, "Here she comes!"

And that is dying...

*I love you guys.

“ Dearest Kady,
I never got the chance to meet you but I know how dearly loved you were by Jessie. She always speaks very fondly of you and expresses how much she will always love you. May you Rest In Peace in the arms of God. Jessie, I am praying for you and your entire family. Hugs.
