“*Knowing and helping take of Karen (and her sisters) was a high privilege for myself and the VA oncology and palliative care staff. Karen was such a joy to see. She was always pleasant and full of life, even when her cancer was taking a heavy toll. She fought the good fight to be with her family -siblings, Mandy (who she spoke about al lot) and grandbaby, as long as she could. She was courageous even as she knew the cancer was progressing. She was as tough at the VA during her treatment as she was in Panama I am sure! Thank you for your service and thank you for the oppportunity to know you Ms. Krimmel.
