“ I will forever remember my cousin Leonard as a quiet and kind and man. Always giving of his time to his family and as a coach to kids. He was a care giver to his mom in her last years and a help to my grandma when she needed him. He always had a smile for my children. If Leonard happened to be at my grandmas house when I would bring dinner for her I would ask him to stay and join us, and he always did!. He seemed to enjoy my cooking! Such a good heart. Rest in peace and God bless you.
