“ You were the matriarch of his family and to many friends in the neighborhood. Although I was your ex daughter-in-law you never referred to me or introduced me as your ex daughter-in-law I was always this is Cheryl my daughter and likewise I always spoke of you as my mom.

When visiting you when I came home from Florida dynamite and I would come by sitting on the porch listening to you giving much needed advice about life. We would go shopping getting flowers and making a beeline to popeye's chicken then going to sit at the park on Jefferson having our own little picnic .

I love you and you surely will be missed but I know that you are at peace resting in heaven with God, your family and friends, but most importantly reunited with Dad A.K.A "Big Buddy".

*Love you,
Cheryl and Dynamite*

“ I will miss from calling my aunt Louise doing the week and on Sunday morning before I would go to church if she wasn't going to church she would be sitting on the porch she will always say something funny and we will laugh, one thing she would always tell me sister wanted her children to stay together like we were raised and I would tell her we will aunt Louise and she will say I love you and I will tell her I love you. And she will say thanks for calling me and I will tell her I will always call you before she would hang up she will ask about the love birds that will be John and Diana my sister and her husband.
