“ When I was a boy I thought Uncle Manuel was a giant and I was afraid of how tough looking he was. Although he was a very tough and brave firefighter he was always there for the kids in his family , like his father. He and my father took Dennis and Steve and I hunting and fishing which was awesome. My first hunting trip was with him and his brothers Mario and Jesse as well as Dennis and Steve. I believe his last hunting trip was with Steve and I and Uncle Manuel shot a deer with his trusty 35 Remington lever gun . It was about a hundred yard shot he made , Manuel never used a scope on his gun . I was pretty amazed he made the shot. When Dennis and Steve were both serving in the Navy he and I had a chance to hang out sometimes , always love those memories. When I re - enlisted and was stationed by Las Vegas one night out of the blue I hear a knock on my door and it's Uncle Manuel , he and I had a blast going from one Casino to another. My heart goes out to Aunt Nancy and all of his children and grandchildren because he was truly a giant . R.I.P. Tio , I'm sure he and his dad are watching the Tigers together in Heaven.
