“ I am so sorry for your loss Sue and Paul and the family words can not express of how I feel about losing a parent. But I am going to say it anyways It is a great loss because a parent is the one who guides you through out life. In fact we as the children are there lives work their loves, their cries and their worries.
She has done her job shaping of who you are She is the flower that smells so beautiful and the butterflies that fly around you. She is that whisper that guides you on your journey. Now she is on her own journey with God and the Angels she is now a angel watching over you and protecting you in spirit . Just remember she is always with you even though she may not be here physically she is always here The proof is you she made you..... Much love, Lisa, Kristen and Karen
