“ I will never forget the first time I met Mary, Anna took me out to her house off Telegraph and Mary and pawpaw welcomed me and fed me as if they have known me my whole life. Mary was always kind and loving every time I seen her and she love my whole family like her own. Fly high with the angels Mary and keep watch over all of us from your fluffy clouds! To all of Mary's children and grand children I am praying for each and every one of you that God grand you peace that surpasses all understanding in your time of bereavement.

“ My Mom was the best Mom ever. She loved us all so much, a memory I will always keep close is the love she showed my Grandchildren in her last days. She told them when they seen the moon and stars to think of her and know that she is up there watching over them. She loved the Fall like no other time of year, Christmas was her favorite so it makes it so hard that left us at this time of the year. But I am comforted knowing she is in heaven at peace and not suffering any longer. Mom I love you and fly high with the angels. Give my love to all that have gone on before you. Love your Daughter Anna Widdis

I love you mom, and i miss you and i call your phone Every day but it's Markie now that answers. Im trying Mom to be Strong, i get that you, you asked me on nov.6,2015 the day you chooe hospice to describe you With one word. I chose strength cuz you were the Strongest person i know , i always admired you. I'm a lot like you as far as my strength, courage to face things head on, never turned your back on any of us. You love unconditional like i do.And you loved your family coming and going I'm like you more than i knew. I'm gonna miss you mom but I'll never let your memory die. You'll always be the best mom i could have had.. love your youngest daughter the Irish one lol.. Shannon Elaine Widdis..
