“ Ms. Solis,
I have know your son since Middle school. While I was an outcast with not a lot of friends, your son came up to me and introduced himself and made me feel right more at ease. He introduced me to the group of his friends and we all hit it off well. Mike always could make me laugh, he was always there to make me smile. I feel bad that we didn't stay closer after high school. I am so sorry for your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time.
