“ Thank you all for coming. Family and friends are gathered here to celebrate the life and the passing of Robert Mink. His presence will be greatly missed, but his memory will be with us forever. Pictures help us relive the moments that we shared and have the power to bring a smile, a chuckle or even an LOL experience. A special song, a piece of jewelry, an old sweatshirt; these are the little things that remind us of him. My personal trigger is the sight of him at 3 or 4 years old, running full-speed down the hallway in our house and launching himself onto the couch where his Grandmother was waiting to catch him before he crashed into the wall. The joy he brought us is only surpassed by the tears he brought us. This is hard. The sense of loss that we all feel is recognition of the fact that Bobby's life had meaning for those of us who know and love him. His death leaves a great hole in our daily lives, but our lives will continue until we too are called to our destiny. He asked us if we would be there to meet him when he died. Of course we said yes, not knowing that he would go before us. Now he'll have to come get us when it's our time to go. I hope he becomes a better driver than he has been in the past. :>) I was taking him to take his drivers test and let him drive us there so he could warm up a little and not be so nervous when he took the driving test. He ran a red light on the way there!

Bobby was a good kid. His smile could light up a room and he had a warm loving heart. Somewhere along the path from child to adult he lost his way. He made poor choices and got lost. Unfortunately we don't get a Mulligan in life, but maybe some good will come of this, in that some of Bobby's friends may see the light and change their ways. We will all miss him and grieve for him, but we must go on. Celebrate life and the hope that tomorrow brings.

We are gathered here with a common purpose: to say goodbye and give our love to Bobby. Via con Dios Robert Terry Mink. You may be gone, but you're not forgotten. God Bless You and us all.

“ My sweet, sweet baby. The 22 years I had with you aren't nearly enough. Giving birth to you was my most joyous moment and losing you will be the deepest pain that I'll ever know. I will miss you more than words can say for the rest of my life. I will treasure the memories of your laugh, how much you cared about those you love, and hope that you've found peace. I will cry everyday until I see you again. Most of all, ill miss your hugs and kisses and hearing your voice call me mom. I love you Bobby.....

“ Bobby will be greatly missed. Just look at that smile! He is now in the arms of Jesus - so, as difficult as it is, that's what we have to remember, along with all the beautiful moments of his short life. I am grieving with you my dear family. My heart and prayers are especially with Michelle, Patty, and Krista - I know this will hit you the hardest. We won't forget you, Bobby. Rest in Peace with our Lord and Jesus Christ.
