“ My "Gunior",

I love you and miss you so much! I hurt so bad. I can't believe you are gone. You are the bravest person I know and I am so proud of you. I know you are with Mom and everybody else up there in Heaven. I love you so much and I know you are with me in Spirit. One day I will be with you and everybody.

Love, "Mam"

“ Growing up with you and Nene as my cousins were some of the best memories. Playing Charlie's Angels (you were always Chris the beautiful blonde) and me and Nene as your sidekicks fighting "crime" in the backyards of Ecorse and Wyandotte. So many belly laughs we had that will never be forgotten. You went too young and although your human body was tired, your eternal body in heaven is full of energy, no pain and loving on all the animals along with my daddy. I believe in my heart that my daddy left this earth just before you so he could guide you to heaven and let you know it is safe. We miss you on this side of heaven but will be together again. I thank Jesus that he makes this possible and that he comforts us as we mourn you. Forever you will be my Beebaw, my crime fighting, animal loving, funny, beautiful blonde cousin. With love - Laura (Leebaw)

“ Dearest Bobbi, I will always treasure our gab fests in the addition, with Nenee cracking us up. While your dad and uncle "J" , were in the living room , hearing us laugh our fool us off. Great fun! You will never be forgotten! I'm sure uncle "J" welcomed you in Heaven! Be with God - Res t in Peace. Aunt "R"
