“ The memories of that infectious laugh, your beautiful smile, and the times we shared talking about the real deals of life will be cherished in my heart until we meet again. You touched so many lives and were always giving your support to others in your recovery journey. May you now rest in heaven from your labors here! We will miss you!!

Peace, love & blessings, Karen G.

“ MY SISTER ROBIN WAS THE MOST KIND, SWEET AND REMARKABLE PERSON . SH MADE ME LAUGH, WHEN I FELT LIKE CRYING. SHE ALWAYS WANTED A HUG AND NOT ONE DAY WENT BY WHEN SHE LIVED ME, THAT SHE WOULDN'T SAY. "I LOVE YOU SISTER" SHE WAS COMPASIONATE, GENEROUS AND HAD THE SWEETEST SOUL OF ANYONE ON THIS EARTH I KNOW. I LOVE AND MISS MY SISTER DEARLY, BUT NOW GOD HAS ONE OF HIS SWEETEST ANGELS WITH HIM. SO I SAY GOODBE TO MY DEAR SISTER. TILL WE MEET AGAIN .

“ Robin loved to come and visit me out here in South Haven. She helped me alot when we were restoring my old farmhouse. She worked really hard. She loved children and animals. When she lived at Surrender House she was always feeding the squirrels. I will miss Robin she was a special friend!.Rest now in Gods hand.
