“ Aunt Rose was a part of an amazing village of family members that raised and nurtured every life that they touched. She was always cheerful and full of spirit. She enjoyed her family and cherished any family gathering. She had to be the youngest and most vibrant 89 year old I ever met.

God decided that her journey here on earth was over and that it was time to join parents and siblings in Heaven. Thank you Rose for your love. RIP. Bobby, Shelia, and family.

“ I am a nurse who had the distinct honor to learn from Rose, how to take care of my newborn daughter back in 1982 at Hamot Hospital in Erie. Later, I transferred to the mother/baby unit and worked along side with Rose. She truly loved her job and her babies. I also learned how to be a good, kind, and compassionate nurse from Rose. I missed her after she retired and moved to be with her family. My heartfelt condolences to Rose's family and friends. Molly Cipriani

“ The one thing I learned from Grandma Rose was her love for life, she was always looking for new opportunities to enjoy life to the fullest. I thank the good Lord that the last conversation we had was filled with laughter. Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning....Psalm 30:5 Jerry and Lori Graham.

“ For many of my years as a nurse I had the honor and pleasure to work along side Rose. She taught me many life lessons and what it took to be a great nurse. Even after retirement and moving from Erie, Rose kept in touch with me. I heard from Rose a few months ago...she was soon turning 90 and was planning on coming to Erie to visit me and other friends and family. My heart is sad that she will not make this trip. RIP my dear Rose..Heaven got another angel.

“ Rose Wilson was a very beautiful person. I had the pleasure of meeting her here at The Village of Royal Oak Senior Living where she lived and I work. We spoke a few times and she always gave me a hug and the last time I saw her she blew me a kiss. I am going to miss seeing her "Hot Red" car to the left of my office. I enjoyed her presence and with the short time I was employeeed there before her death, I am glad to say that I knew her. My love and prays are with the family she will be missed.
