“ My buddy, my friend. We went on spring break together. Played football together and grew up together. We played softball and became men together. We all had great times and fun and never forgot the friendships and bonds we shared. May your soul rest in peace until we meet again. Your friend always (together).

“ My deepest sympathy to the family in the loss of Roy. He was a great friend and neighbor growing up. My prayers to his children. He was way too young. My children just lost their father in September and it has not been easy. Take peace in knowing his legacy will live on in his children and in the memories you have of him. To Kathy, Laura, Anita, Jessica and Mr. Bingham, I'm very sorry for your loss and wish you peace.

“ Condolences to the family. A distant cousin, I grew up 3 houses down on Culver Street in Dearborn Heights. Gone very young and way too soon. Sending blessings and thoughts of comfort and peace.
