“ My fondest memory was back in the '70s when asked for a ride on my Z900 while visiting with my brother Red. I said ok, and popped on the helmets and road slowly around the block waving to her friends. I wondered if she would ever stop smiling. She always did love sharing activity's with family members. Most of all her children and husband Don. Ruth is will be a missing part of our hearts now, but the loss is only temporary. We will meet again and put the pieces back together. Love Always Pat Burbank
