“ *My memories go back before she married my beloved brother Robert. You see I loved all my brothers, but Robert was the oldest and I adored him. He never could do anything wrong in my eyes. When Robert brought Shirley over to meet my parents, they were concerned that I would be jealous, but instead I had found a Sister not just a Sister In Law. From the moment of our first meeting I adored Shirley just as I did Robert. She was always there for me. She helped our family though so much. But she was the well of strength that I could count on. I know that Robert has come to take her with him to heaven. All those that loved her and have gone on are waiting for her. I thank God for allowing me to have a sister like Shirley. My heart is broken not to hear her voice again. I pray that we all have strength to carry on until we meet again.
All my love to you all,
Aunt Kathy Lord*
