“ Roger was always there to lend a helping hand for me. He was there during some of my darkest hours to let me know I could lean on him but I couldn't give up. He had a special gift of "hitting home" his message and leaving you with a smile. He was one great gentleman who I will miss everyday. "Nobody but you" could be so kind and caring.

“ Dear family of Terry: Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. Death is such a tragedy for all of us and when it touches us personally, few of us find the comfort that we search for. And death itself leaves so many of us with unanswered questions. However, many have found comfort in God's Word the Bible. The Bible teaches that soon God will swallow up death forever and wipe the tears from all faces. (Isaiah 25:8). God also promises to reunite us with our dear loved ones by means of a resurrection right here on earth and we can live life to the full in paradise that will be filled with peace, happiness and perfect health for everyone. What a wonderful hope and prospect this is. (John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:4; Psalms 37:10,11,29; Isaiah 33:24). As you read the above texts in your Bible, may the wonderful hope they give us, along with loving memories, bring you a measure of comfort during this most difficult time. Sincerely: David Cowles

 Terry
Robbs Jr

“ My father, his whole life, had to fight to get into the positions that he eventually grew in to. This, I tell myself, to bring comfort, was a fight he chose not to partake in. He had more love in his heart for me, his wife, and everyone close to him, that he couldn't let the pain and suffering consume him anymore. I love my Dad, so much. That love will never fade, and his memory will never fade. I promise that on his name, and my name.

I love you, Dad.

May you rest peacefully, and provide us with your energy.

I can't explain what a friend your father was to me in the band we shared . We had so many great times and laughs . I think of his laugh and smile and it makes me smile now . I regret so much that I was never able to get in touch with him again in the later years . I will always remember him in the same breath as one of closest friends . To your father said Elmer Fudd " Hewwo Mr. Wobbs " . RIP my friend .
