“ It's 5am and I can't sleep. I miss you so much and this wall is the only way i can express that. No matter how much time passed between our paths crossing you were my true love it was like the greatest feeling in the world i never felt complete without you. The second i first seen you I fell in love with you for many reasons it seemed it was not ment to be and out of the blue you would contact me or i would contact you it was like we knew we needed each other I pray for you and your family I pray that one day I would hug you again I want to kept posting so i feel that somehow you would know but this hurts me everytime i come on here so I will hope and continue to pray I love you always Ness

“ May the love of family and friends give you strength as the "hearer of prayer" embraces your hearts. Lean on one another as the days ahead become difficult to bear alone. Share your memories they will be a source of comfort that can help your family cope and grant them peace.

“ I remember when we were growing up we were never apart. I was always staying the night and we would always want popcorn with seasoning salt sitting on the 2 little couch things lol with the table in the middle lol :) from us going swimming in the pool to us flipping it over and sitting underneath it and running in the middle of the street playing in the water from the pool :) to us being forced to take naps but we never did we always fooled around and most times getting caught and yelled at :) to you and I making up a dance routine to wake me up before you go go lol lol Wham was the stuff back then :) :) to us going to bingo on occasions glad I have so many awesome memories of us together I have tons more but I will save those for another day I love you very much Nessa and even tho we hardly seen each other or talked much as we got older I would have still done anything for you 😘💕 i am gonna miss seeing your posts on fb and your beautiful selfies gonna miss you tons may you rest in heaven smooches and big big hugs 😘💕😘💕😘💕 love you always Stacy
