“Yolanda and I shared a desk in our days as student assistants at WSU, and worked together for years in Tech Services. She was always full of energy, sharing cooking tips and excited about her craft and sewing projects. Her laughter will linger on even now that she's gone. May she rest in peace and reap the rewards of her faith. God Bless.

“I worked with Yolanda at Shiffman Medical Library Wayne State University. When she moved to main campus I would run into her every now and then and catch up on everything. The heavens have another Angel to watch over all of her loved ones. I hope you will find comfort in remembering all of the great times you had with her. Rest in Peace Yolanda you will be missed.
